*"I'm the sh*t, I'm fartin. I don't know how to potty" - Kodak Black*

I currently play basketball but lacked athleticism to compete at a high competitive level. I have been looking to research about how to improve my athleticism and have failed to do so with so much information being locked behind a paywall. In addition, I have just recently been dumped by my three month long girlfriend. I want to use the gym to use all my emotions to get some gains.

*"It's true. The storms won't last forever. The nasty weather will never last.
There is always that light at the end of the tunnel."*

I like to start my day with a coffee and cooking me and my kids breakfast before they head to school. I then head to school early to set up my plan for the class that day. I will try and knock out some papers I haven't graded yet before my class starts to wander in. I end my day with lunch in my room because I have a planning period for my last period. I will then go home and cook my kids their last meal for the day and either watch some tv with them or help them with their homework.
